

Starlight Investments Continues Its Participation in the University of Guelph Undergraduate Real Estate Case Competition

Toronto – March 19, 2019 – Starlight Investments (“Starlight”) is pleased to announce its continued sponsorship and participation in the University of Guelph Undergraduate Real Estate Case Competition (“URECC”) which will be held at Deloitte’s downtown Toronto office.

The URECC is designed to attract a collection of the sharpest, most proactive minds in the real estate industry. This annual case competition challenges students to create a development plan for a large, iconic, currently existing real estate site, offering students a realistic representation of what creating a development plan encompasses. URECC has historically received participation with teams from Canada’s most renowned academic institutions whose business programs prepare students for success in the real estate industry. The competition will award the winning team a prize of $10,000.

Starlight’s President, Canadian Multi-Family, David Chalmers and Senior Development Manager, Anne Messoré, will join other members of the real estate industry to help prepare students for success through both sponsorship of the competition and participation in this year’s judges panel.

“Starlight is proud to be a sponsor and honored to participate as judges in this year’s competition. The URECC gives students the opportunity to take what they have learned in the classroom and apply it to a ‘real life’ development exercise,” stated David Chalmers, Starlight’s President, Canadian Multi-Family.
