

Daniel Drimmer to Share Canadian Multi-Family Industry Insights at the 2018 Vancouver Real Estate Forum

Toronto – April 20, 2018 – On April 25, 2018 Daniel Drimmer, President and Chief Executive Officer of Starlight Investments, will be participating in the 2018 Vancouver Real Estate Forum to discuss ongoing trends, opportunities and strategies in the Vancouver multi-residential market.

Speaking to a full capacity audience, Daniel Drimmer will participate in a panel discussion with some of Canada's leading executives in the multi-family industry. The conference will focus on major trends, strategies, risks, and opportunities within the Vancouver real estate investment and management industry. Speaking about the evolving multi-family market, Daniel and the panel will focus on the Vancouver market and the sustainability of purpose built rentals. Starlight Investments currently has a portfolio of 25 buildings comprising 1800 units in Vancouver and Victoria, demonstrating Daniel Drimmer's knowledge and understanding of the urban British Columbia real estate market.

“Starlight is pleased to participate in a leading industry event such as the Vancouver Real Estate Forum and to share our ideas in an open dialogue with our industry peers,” stated David Hanick, Starlight Investment’s Chief Legal Officer.

For 25 years the Vancouver Real Estate Forum has been one of the largest annual conferences on real estate investment and management issues in the region. It has earned this reputation by offering high quality speakers on very topical issues and attracts more than 2,500 executives.
