The Children's Breakfast Club is a non-profit charitable organization that believes every child is entitled to a nutritious breakfast. An estimated 4,000 meals are served each week in the clubs across the Greater Toronto Area. The Children’s Breakfast Club relies solely on the generosity and support of corporations and individuals to operate each club. In addition to funds, The Children’s Breakfast Club welcomes donations of food, equipment and supplies that can help reduce its operating costs. Today, The Children’s Breakfast Club operates programs in more than 20 communities. Each club is established in collaboration with a number of community partners, including residents, agencies, schools and organizations and has a community advisory board of concerned residents who advise staff and shape the program to best meet the needs of the community.

“Starlight is honoured to support such a worthwhile cause. Our employees are proud to contribute to such an important cause and to give back to our local community” stated Daniel Drimmer, Starlight’s President and Chief Executive Officer.

Starlight employees collected more than 70 winter coats which will be donated to those in-need during the winter.
