

Starlight Investments Completes Acquisition of a Seven Townhome Complex, Comprising 61 Units, in Mississauga, ON.

Toronto – Sept 27, 2022 – Starlight Investments (“Starlight”) announced today that it has completed the acquisition of a seven-townhome complex in Mississauga, Ontario (“The Property”). The complex consists of 61 units in total.

The Property is comfortably tucked away within the city of Mississauga - a short drive from the city of Toronto and all it has to offer. With access to major highways and transitways, academic institutions, greenspaces and retail locations, this private townhome community is an ideal fit for young families and individuals looking for the quiet calm of the suburbs without compromising on the benefits of city living.

“Mississauga is a highly attractive area and we are pleased to be able to offer our residents comfortable and private townhome living with this newest acquisition. This will serve to further fulfill our strategy of acquiring properties in strategic locations within strong markets,” stated David Chalmers, President, Canadian Multi-Family, Starlight Investments

The Property

The Property is pet friendly, with ample surface level parking and boasts private patio space for every unit. Each unit also has in-suite laundry and fully furnished kitchens with appliances. The Property is within walking distance of multiple acclaimed elementary schools, both public and private, as well as the University of Toronto, Mississauga campus. Multiple parks and greenspaces are in the area, as well as a Walmart Supercentre and various grocery and retail locations. The property will be professionally managed by Kipling.
