

Starlight Investments Acquires Mid-Rise Property Totaling 42 Units, in Mississauga, ON

Toronto – November 21, 2022 – Starlight Investments (“Starlight”) announced today that it has completed the acquisition of a mid-rise building (the “Property”), comprising of 41 residential units and one commercial unit, located in Mississauga, Ontario.

The multi-family Property is nestled away in the idyllic Streetsville neighbourhood – boasting a beautiful mix of heritage properties and modern living. The neighbourhood is conveniently connected to major transit terminals and steps away from a number of community amenities, including the Streetsville Memorial Park, an outdoor community hub for residents to stay active and connected. The property is also a short walking distance from a variety of grocery stores, banks, local shops and restaurants.

“We are always looking to acquire quality properties with strong fundamentals and this property, along with the surrounding neighbourhood, align with Starlight’s objective to provide high quality rental housing,” said David Chalmers, President, Canadian Multi-Family, Starlight Investments.

The Property

The six-storey, controlled-entry, building includes one commercial unit, one bachelor unit, 24 one-bedroom units, 14 two-bedroom units, and two three-bedroom units. The units are pet-friendly and boast fully furnished kitchens and stainless-steel appliances. Residents can access private storage lockers, onsite laundry facilities, private parking. This property will be professionally managed by Signet Group.
