

Starlight Investments Receives Prestigious 2021 CFAA Award for Renovation of the Year

Toronto – May 6, 2021 – On May 4th - 6th 2021, the Canadian Federation of Apartment Associations (“CFAA”) hosted its annual CFAA Rental Housing Awards Program. Each year, members of the CFAA, and its regional apartment associations, honour businesses and individuals who demonstrate excellence in Canada’s rental housing industry. Due to restrictions as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, this year’s awards were held virtually. Starlight Investments (“Starlight”) was the proud recipient of Renovation of the Year – 1 Chapel Street, Nanamo, BC. Starlight was a finalist for three awards in total: Renovation of the Year - 71 Thorncliffe Park Drive, Toronto, ON; Renovation of the Year - 35 Greenbrae Circuit, Scarborough, ON; Renovation of the Year – 1 Chapel Street, Nanamo, BC.

The Renovation of the Year award recognizes a company who has achieved excellence in the renovation of an existing rental housing building or a building being converted into a rental building. This award is judged on the overall creativity, value for money and functionality of the renovated area or building.

“Starlight is honoured to be recognized by CFAA for Renovation of the Year. The award received is a testament of Starlight’s commitment to its capital expenditure program and to the strength of our Canadian Multi-Family Asset Management Team. Congratulations to all of the recipients at the event,” stated Daniel Drimmer, Starlight’s President and Chief

The Canadian Federation of Apartment Association National Awards program recognizes the excellence and notable achievements of Rental Housing Providers across the country.
