

Starlight Investments Proud Supporter of Holiday Helpers Charity Initiative

Toronto – November 23, 2017 – Starlight Investments (“Starlight”) is proud to announce it has partnered to help families in the Greater Toronto Area enjoy the holiday season by donating commercial space at 320 Matheson Boulevard West in Mississauga, Ontario. The space will be home to volunteers and be utilized for sorting, wrapping and shipping gifts to over 530 deserving families.

Holiday Helpers is a charity whose mission is to provide a one-time personalized holiday package to low income families with young children. The charity works with volunteers and donors to provide families with a holiday meal, decorated Christmas tree and gifts customized for each family member.

“The holiday season is a time for giving and joy. Starlight Investments believes in supporting our community and its numerous charities including Holiday Helpers which strives to improve the lives of families across the Greater Toronto Area. It is organizations like Holiday Helpers that make the GTA an inclusionary community,” commented Tracy Sherren, Group Head, Commercial and Chief Financial Officer, Starlight Investments and True North Commercial REIT.

About Holiday Helpers

Last year Holiday Helpers provided 500 deserving families with their special holiday packages. Over $130,00 was donated to the holiday cause from over 600 donors. This year, with the help of Starlight Investments, Holiday Helpers plan to use the donated vacant space to help over 530 families.
