

Starlight Investments' Perry Rose to Participate as Panelist in CFAA's Energy and Water Management Webinar

Toronto – November 23, 2020 – Starlight Investments (“Starlight”) announced today that Perry Rose, Executive Director, Procurement & Technical Services, will be a panelist in Canadian Federation of Apartment Associations’ (“CFAA”) ‘Future Proof Your Business’ webinar.

“As part of our ESG program, energy and water management are a primary focus at Starlight, and I look forward to discussing goals, strategies and technologies with other organizations in our industry,” stated Perry Rose, Executive Director, Procurement & Technical Services.

Energy management has evolved during the pandemic as companies seek operational efficiency including decreasing energy costs. With budgeting pressures and service quality requirements, it has become increasingly important to consider how organizations and individuals can coordinate and implement energy management strategies to reduce the risk of steadily increasing costs. CFAA’s webinar will focus on trends in sustainability and how organizations are planning future projects to align with this vision.

The webinar will take place on November 24, 2020 at 3:00pm Eastern Standard Time. Panelists include Perry Rose, Starlight Investments; Peter Mills, Wyse Solutions; George Tsintzouras, Alert Labs; Joe Consolo, Yardi; and Jason Ashdown, Skyline Living.
