

Starlight Investments to Participate in the 2019 Queen's University Real Estate Capital Markets Seminar

Toronto – February 4, 2019 – Starlight Investments (“Starlight”) is pleased to announce its participation in the 2019 Queen’s University Real Estate Capital Markets Seminar presented by the Queen’s Real Estate Roundtable. The organization brings together senior executives within the commercial real estate sector for the purpose of advancing and sharing their practices in the industry.

The conference engages many of the industry's leaders in an informative, candid and interactive forum. It will investigate the significant trends in Canadian real estate capital markets. The sessions will have practical focus on analyzing current trends, forecasting future changes and examining strategies which executives can immediately implement. There will be many informal networking opportunities to build business relationships across a broad spectrum within the commercial real estate and capital markets sector.

Starlight’s President and Chief Executive Officer, Daniel Drimmer, will join other senior leaders and participate in the Private Equity Panel which will focus on the biggest challenges real estate owners expect to face in 2019.
